

cut out large and small circles and use a paper split pin to put together to decode messages

First small wheel is for the basic Ceaser cipher; second small circle is for some possible variants You can make up your own symbols too!

